

2012 Bible Reading Plan

A calendar that includes daily readings covering the whole Bible in one year, in a thematic fashion.

Description and Examples

This Bible reading plan is thematic or connective in nature. The goal is to make as many associations as possible between the different parts of Scripture while still reading individual books of the Bible from start to finish. Only the Psalms are not read in consecutive order. The Psalms are individually apportioned throughout the year to increase the number of connections that can be observed and appreciated.

Examples of the thematic approach in this year's plan:

- Jan 9 Genesis 21 and Galatians 4: Hagar and Sarah
Jan 25 Genesis 50 and Romans 8: God meant it for good
Feb 23 Leviticus 16 and Hebrews 9: Christ's sacrifice fulfills the levitical sacrificial system
Apr 7 Isaiah, Mark, and Psalm 22 on the crucifixion and burial of Christ
Aug 2 2 Samuel 11-12 and Psalm 51: David's fall into sin and his confession of that sin
Sept 8 Song of Songs 1-4 and Proverbs 30:19: the way of a man with a maid
Sept 13 Ezekiel 1 and Revelation 4: four living creatures associated with the throne and glory of God
Oct 10 Psalm 146:8 and John 9: opening the eyes of the blind
Dec 23 Daniel 3 and Psalm 115: the difference between idols and the living God

There are many other connections, both major and minor, besides these. With many of the Psalms used in this manner, the number of connections in the 2012 plan are somewhere between 100 and 120.

Acknowledgements

The editor is indebted to a great number of men who laid the foundation for these plans, many of whose names are lost to history. Chief among those who are known are: Robert Murray M'Cheyne, Scottish pastor and the creator of the world-renowned M'Cheyne Bible Reading Plan, and R. A. Torrey, compiler of the Treasury of Scripture Knowledge. Frequent use has also been made of the cross-reference systems found in the New American Standard Bible, the English Standard Version, the 4th edition of the UBS Greek New Testament, and the 27th edition of Novum Testamentum Graece.

Availability

Electronic copies of this calendar may be obtained by emailing the editor at the address shown below. Also available for those who request it is a single-sheet summary of the calendar that only contains the Bible reading plan, and, when folded, fits conveniently in most Bibles.

All we want in Christ, we shall find in Christ. If we want little, we shall find little. If we want much, we shall find much; but if, in utter helplessness, we cast our all on Christ, He will be to us the whole treasury of God.

It would be of excellent use to improve us in the gift of prayer, if in our daily reading of the Word of God we observed what expressions were suited to the several parts of prayer – adoration, confession, petition or thanksgiving – and let them be used in our addresses to God that day. Indeed, if we remembered but one verse every day, and fixed it into our hearts by frequent meditation, and worked it into our prayers morning and evening, it would in time grow up to a treasure of divine meaning and language, fit to address our Maker upon all occurrences of life.

To say prayers in a decent, delicate way is not heavy work. But to pray really, to pray till hell feels the ponderous stroke, to pray till the iron gates of difficulty are opened, till the mountains of obstacles are removed, till the mists are exhaled and the clouds are lifted, and the sunshine of a cloudless day brightens – this is hard work, but it is God's work, and man's best labor.

Prayer pulls the rope below and the great bell rings above in the ears of God. Some scarcely stir the bell, for they pray so languidly. Others give but an occasional pluck at the rope. But he who wins with heaven is the man who grasps the rope boldly and pulls continuously, with all his might.

Good and evil both increase at compound interest. That is why the little decisions you and I make every day are of such infinite importance. The smallest good act today is the capture of a strategic point from which, a few months later, you may be able to go on to victories you never dreamed of. An apparently trivial indulgence in lust or anger today is the loss of a ridge or railway line or bridgehead from which the enemy may launch an attack otherwise impossible.

I have been a minister long enough to say with complete certainty that half-hearted pursuits produce half-hearted results. Marriages and relationships are not restored or rejuvenated with left-over time and energy. God is not found with throw-away minutes.

Our justification means not only that our sins are forgiven and that we have been declared to be righteous by God Himself, not merely that we were righteous at the moment when we believed, but permanently righteous. For justification means this also, that we are given by God the positive righteousness of His own Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

O think! To step on shore, and that shore, Heaven!
 To take hold of a hand, and find it – God’s hand!
 To breathe new air, and feel it celestial air.
 To feel invigorated, and to know it immortality!
 O think! To pass from the storm and tempest, to one unbroken calm!
 To wake up, and find it – GLORY!
